JOSH AND YANG WEI (COCO) LANGE
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS, CWEF
SERVING IN ASIA

Josh and Coco Lange serve through The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) in Asia and are based in Shanghai. Josh serves as director of operations for Concordia Welfare and Education Foundation (CWEF), a Hong Kong-based nonprofit organization that reaches out to people living in material poverty in China and Cambodia. He supports CWEF's local staff members in those places, who carry out education and health programs designed to reduce poverty and improve lives. Previously, Josh served as the Shanghai service coordinator with CWEF and as the communication specialist for the LCMS' Asia region, based out of Hong Kong.

Josh grew up in Jefferson City, Mo., where his home congregation is Faith Lutheran Church. He attended high school at Saint Paul Lutheran High in Concordia, Mo., and graduated from the University of Missouri, Columbia, with a marketing degree. He worked for a marketing agency in St. Louis, Mo., before moving to Hong Kong in 2008 to begin his service with the LCMS. Coco was born in Yangzhou, China. After graduating from Nanjing University, China, she earned a master's degree in international business from Birmingham University, England, before returning to Shanghai and gaining experience in the world of media, nonprofit and the arts.

Please pray for Josh and Coco as they serve in Asia. Pray they are given wisdom with every step they take as they complete the work given to them. Pray for their continued good spiritual and physical health, growth and protection. Pray they are both given opportunities to share love with and minister, in word and deed, to their friends, family members, coworkers, local partners and CWEF program participants. Pray these individuals' lives are changed as this love and compassion are shared with them. Let us give thanks that Josh and Coco are serving in this part of the world.
