KATE PHILLIPS
DEACONESS INTERN

SERVING THE LORD IN THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Kate Phillips serves the Lord through The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) as a missionary in the Dominican Republic. In her role as a deaconess intern, she works with the pastoral staff at a local church plant. She connects with and teaches youth and women, both in the community and when doing evangelistic visits. Kate also assists in the mercy work being done in the Dominican Republic through the mercy houses in this country.

Kate's hometown is Arnold, Md., and her home congregation is St. Paul Lutheran Church, Annapolis, Md. She received bachelor's degrees in mathematics and chemistry from Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas. Kate is currently enrolled at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Ind., where she is working to receive a master's degree in deaconess studies. Before attending seminary, she worked as a math educator in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. In her free time, Kate enjoys cooking, traveling, photography, crocheting and outdoor recreation.

Please pray for Kate as she serves the church and people in the Dominican Republic. Ask God to guide her as she prepares to transition to the mission field. Pray that God gives her the patience and dedication in learning the Spanish language. Ask God to be with her family and friends who are back home in the United States. Pray for the missionary team serving in the Dominican Republic, as well as the Dominican people, that they may receive and show God's mercy in all that they do. Let us give thanks to God that Kate is serving His children in this part of the world.

Gifts received for LCMS international workers are deposited in an account restricted for the support of eligible international workers. Any gifts received in excess of a worker's requirement for a given year are held for that worker until needed. Should a worker's service conclude for any reason, the funds remaining in the restricted account will be transferred to one or more eligible LCMS international workers who most closely fulfill the restrictions of the original gift. With documented donor permission, a restricted gift can also be utilized to support international work budgeted by the LCMS. Your gift is tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.
