DEACONESS CAITLIN WORDEN DE RAMÍREZ
CONGREGATIONAL DEACONESS
SERVING THE LORD IN THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Deaconess Caitlin Worden de Ramirez serves the Lord through The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) as a deaconess missionary in Santiago de los Caballeros, Dominican Republic. She works as a congregational deaconess alongside the pastors. She serves as mentor for the formation of Dominican deaconesses and works alongside the seminary in the Dominican Republic to train them on a congregational level. She also supports the work of the mercy houses in this country and seeks to strengthen the relationships between them and the congregations. She specifically works with the program Amigos de Jesus, “Friends of Jesus,” which is a disabilities outreach ministry. In addition, Caitlin supports the women and youth of missionary families in this country through emotional and spiritual care.

Caitlin’s hometown is Watervliet, Mich., and her home congregation is Salem Lutheran Church, Coloma, Mich. She received a bachelor’s degree in social work and sociology from Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant. She also received a master’s in theology degree with a deaconess certification from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Ind. Caitlin served as an LCMS missionary in Lima, Peru, for five years before transitioning to her service in the Dominican Republic. She enjoys reading, baking and spending time with her husband Jeancarlos and their friends.

Pray for Caitlin as she serves in the Dominican Republic. She writes, “Please pray that the Lord helps us with the transition to the Dominican Republic, to face with His strength the culture shock and with His joy the hardship of leaving behind friends and family in Peru. Pray for Jeancarlos’ studies at the seminary and for my vocation working with the congregations. Pray for the congregational members here in the Dominican Republic, and for the deaconess students, that the Lord may strengthen them and lead them in their spiritual growth.” Pray also for Jeancarlos and Caitlin as they begin their married life together bonded in the love of Christ. Let us give thanks for Caitlin’s service to God’s children in the Dominican Republic.

Gifts received for LCMS international workers are deposited in an account restricted for the support of eligible international workers. Any gifts received in excess of a worker’s requirement for a given year are held for that worker until needed. Should a worker’s service conclude for any reason, the funds remaining in the restricted account will be transferred to one or more eligible LCMS international workers who most closely fulfill the restrictions of the original gift. With documented donor permission, a restricted gift can also be utilized to support international work budgeted by the LCMS. Your gift is tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.
